Leadership New Hampshire welcomes four new trustees and announces 2026-2027 board officers

Concord, N.H.— Leadership New Hampshire (LNH) is pleased to announce the election of four new members to its Board of Trustees, along with the organization's officers for the 2026-2027 program year.

Joining the LNH Board of Trustees are:

- James Bassett, Class of 1994, Of Counsel, Orr & Reno
- Kelli D'Amore, Class of 2017, Managing Partner, Nathan Wechsler & Co.
- Rusty Talbot, Class of 2019, Owner & Manager, North Country Climbing Center
- Matt Toy, Class of 2020, VP Customer Experience, FirstLight Fiber

Together, they bring significant leadership experience and a deep commitment to Leadership New Hampshire's mission of building a community of informed and engaged leaders. As alumni of the program, they join a Board of Trustees composed entirely of Leadership New Hampshire graduates who continue to strengthen the organization through volunteer leadership, governance, and service.

"We are delighted to welcome James, Kelli, Rusty, and Matt to the Board of Trustees," said Leadership New Hampshire Executive Director Will Stewart. "Each has demonstrated a strong commitment to leadership, service, and New Hampshire throughout their careers. Their experience and perspectives will help guide Leadership New Hampshire as we continue investing in leaders and strengthening communities across the Granite State."

Leadership New Hampshire also announced its officers for the 2026-2027 fiscal year:

- Chair: Mica Stark, Class of 2012, President & CEO, NH College & University Council
- Vice Chair: Robin Milnes, Class of 2015, VP, INEX Capital
- Secretary: Jeannie Cadarette, Class of 2020, Federal Aid Specialist, NH Fish & Game Department
- Treasurer: Mark Zankel, Class of 2017, Director of Community Solar, ReVision Energy

Stark succeeds Byron Champlin, Class of 1999, who concluded his term as board chair on June 30. Leadership New Hampshire extends its sincere gratitude to Champlin for his thoughtful leadership and steadfast commitment to the organization during a period of continued growth and strategic advancement.

Leadership New Hampshire also extends its sincere appreciation to outgoing trustees Jim Eilenberger, Class of 2013; Dr. Karinne Jervis, Class of 2022; and Zach Luse, Class of 2019, whose dedicated service on the Board of Trustees also concluded on June 30.
